

SOCIAL CARE

The coalition cuts went deep. UKIP will increase social care funding by £1.2 billion each year, phasing in this increase over a two-year period, to bring investment back to 2010 levels and pay for the additional residential, nursing and home care services that are so desperately needed.

Funding Crisis

The good news is we are living longer. The bad news is this is causing a crisis in elderly care.