

Labour will:

set up a people-led Constitutional Convention to determine the future of UK's governance replace the House of Lords with a Senate of the Nations and Regions pass an English Devolution Act, handing £30 billion of resources and powers to our great English city and county regions give new powers for communities to shape their high streets, including power over payday lenders and the number of fixed-odds betting terminals meet our promises to devolve further powers to Scotland and Wales give 16 and 17-year-olds the vote create a statutory register of lobbyists ban MPs from holding paid directorships and consultancies require large companies to publish their gender pay gap implement the recommendations of the Leveson Inquiry.
