

| A Record of Delivery | A Promise of More |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Cut crime by 10%, with evidence-based policing directed at the front line | Focus policing on crime prevention, saving money by scrapping Police and Crime Commissioners |
| Improved treatment for addiction and mental health problems in prison | Cut crime with specialist drug courts and non-criminal punishments that help addicts get clean |
| More prisoners working longer hours with wages contributing to a Victims' Fund | Reform prisons to focus on turning offenders away from a life of crime |
| National strategy on fighting violence against women and girls and ending the awful practice of Female Genital Mutilation | End FGM at home and abroad in a generation, teach sexual consent in our schools, and crack down on domestic violence |
| Reintroduced border checks so we know who is coming in and leaving the UK | Complete border checks and use the information to improve our visa rules and deport people with no right to stay |

9.1 Preventing crime

Crime and fear of crime are amongst the greatest threats to our security and our ability to live our lives to the full. Our focus is on trying to prevent crime from happening in the first place.

We will:

- ♦ Design out opportunities for crime, by improving the built environment, the design of new technologies, and community resilience.
- ♦ Strengthen the What Works centre within the College of Policing and require HM Inspectorate of Constabulary to scrutinise the use
